Each sponsor agrees that they will indemnify and hold harmless the American Limb Preservation Society and said venue against any claims by any of its employees or by any person on the premises at this invitation or for the purpose of delivery to or servicing their sponsorship event and against any claims by other persons caused by anything occurring in connection with its sponsorship event. The sponsor assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, damages, and claims arising out of injury or damage to sponsor's displays, equipment, and other property brought upon the premises of the said venue and shall indemnify and hold harmless the American Limb Preservation Society, its affiliates, agents, and employees from any and all such loss, damages and claims.

- I, the undersigned, hereby make application for a sponsorship event at this Keck School of Medicine CME Accredited Activity.
- I have read the terms of agreement and sponsoring company and its representative(s) agree to the terms.
- I acknowledge that I have received, read, and am in agreement with, the Standards for Commercial Support from the Accreditation Council for Continuing Education (ACCME), specifically Standard 4.0, which discusses the separation of promotional activities and materials from CME content. Sponsors are asked to limit sales and marketing activities to areas outside of the conference room where the program takes place. The American Limb Preservation Society also requests that you refrain from wearing an identifying company badge while in the program conference room. The American Limb Preservation Society will provide badges for all attendees at our registration desk upon arrival.
- I will not plan or participate in any other CME or non-CME activity during the dates of this activity that may conflict with any scheduled events sponsored by this activity.
