The Premier Educational and Networking Event for Specialists in the Field of the Diabetic Foot

Welcome to DFCon & the American Limb Preservation Society

The American Limb Preservation society (ALPS) is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization whose vision and goal is to eliminate preventable amputations over the next generation. DFCon is the official annual conference of ALPS and a driving initiative in helping us work toward this vision.

ALPS believes that an interdisciplinary approach is the way forward to saving limbs and improving patient outcomes. We aim to serve as an interdisciplinary bridge between varied groups and organizations that play a role in lower limb preservation. In doing so, we strive to educate and empower healthcare personnel to engage and work with interdisciplinary teams to help ensure high-quality and patient-centered outcomes.

Interdisciplinary efforts also contribute to the continuation of development of research and treatments for patients with limb threatening conditions. Through the programs of ALPS and the education and scientific content at DFCon, we will continue to advance the science, clinical care and advocacy of limb preservation and work to develop the next generation of clinicians, scientists, and clinician scientists in the field.

ALPS was founded to bring like-minded clinicians from different disciplines together to advance patient care and improve limb salvage outcomes. DFCon 2025 is anticipated to be grander than ever, as we celebrate a quarter-century of being guided by this vision.

We hope to welcome you on board!

”The American Limb Preservation Society and DFCon are pleased to collaborate with innovative corporate partners who understand the importance and sense of urgency for patients living with the risk of amputation due to diabetic foot complications. These are companies that put patient care and outcomes at the forefront of what they do.”

Chairman's Welcome

Dear Friends,

On October 23 - 25, 2025, the 25th anniversary edition of the Interdisciplinary Diabetic Foot Conference (DFCon) will take place in Anaheim, CA. This event provides a unique opportunity for members in the worldwide diabetic foot space to discover, interact, and collaborate with one another.

For 25 years, DFCon has gathered influential speakers and delivered outstanding scientific content. This three-day conference allows the best in their field to come together and learn from each other. DFCon also serves as a hands-on, dynamic congress where delegates can use the experience to immediately bring impact to their daily clinical practice. You will learn more about the different topics and sessions on the following pages.

There is a challenge facing us: redefining the role of a medical congress in the 21st century. The clinician from 20 years ago is different from the clinician of today. Knowledge is now available at their fingertips. The information is no longer an end in itself; it's a conversation starter. DFCon exists to facilitate this meeting of physicians where ideas can be exchanged freely.

DFCon is widely acknowledged as being a leader in discovery. Next-generation endovascular therapies, wearable robots, spray-on skin, sociomicrobiology, smart textiles, phage therapy, augmented reality and injectable sensors have all made their debut at DFCon.

DFCon is an opportunity to meet your customers, initiate new collaborations and find inspiration or even an investor. Your invaluable participation as a sponsor makes DFCon more accessible to delegates and provides you the opportunity to meet them in a setting away from the requirements of their demanding schedules.

Throughout the years, DFCon has been recognized as the premier scientific and educational diabetic foot event, but our ambition goes beyond that. It is always the hope to cultivate the advancements of our field and continue to learn from each other.

We hope you will join us on this exciting journey as we celebrate DFCon's 25th anniversary.

What Sets DFCon Apart

For 25 years DFCon the world's premier interdisciplinary diabetic foot conference offers the opportunity to review state-of-the-art concepts and techniques. DFCon is designed for a wide spectrum of generalists and specialists who diagnose and manage diabetic foot problems.

Our conference has widely been acknowledged as being at the forefront of discovery in this and other fields. Descriptions of next generation endovascular therapies, wearable robots, spray-on skin, sociomicrobiology, smart textiles, phage therapy, augmented reality and injectable sensors made their debut at DFCon. That's only the beginning.

The conference is comprised of didactic talks, panel discussions, Q&A sessions, specialty symposia, hands-on workshops and exhibitors that explore diagnostic and interventional strategies for diabetic foot ulcers and amputation prevention.

Accreditation Statement

The Keck School of Medicine of the University of Southern California is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation

Confirmed AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™] will be determined upon finalization of the program agenda.

Important Note for CE Certification

The Nursing Board of California recognizes the AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] in lieu of a BRN number/CEUs. BRN numbers are not required when submitting your AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™].

AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™] may be accepted for other specialty boards. It is the responsibility of each delegate to determine with your specialty board the final CE units acceptable for maintenance of certification.

DFCon 2025 is delivered in collaboration with Keck School of Medicine of USC.

“DFCon should literally be experienced by each resident at least once before they graduate; it will have such an amazing, positive impact and make you fully aware of how interdisciplinary diabetes is.”

DFCon 2024 Participant

“I saw so many amazing innovations and case studies, and I am definitely a better doctor because of the whole experience.”
